KRAŠ itself is the largest manufacturer of confectionery products in the South-Eastern Europe

For a century, generations of consumers have enjoyed a wide range of sweet Kraš products. Right from the start of production in 1911 till nowadays, Kraš has been systematically extending its production of all three confectionery categories – cocoa products, biscuits and wafers, as well as sugar confectionery.

You will have the opportunity to taste some of their sweets and you could bring some with you as it is one of the most popular gourmet souvenirs from Croatia (available in the special Kraš shops, all grocery shops or Duty and Tax Free Shop at the airport). Bajadera is one of the most famous in their wide range of products.

VENUE LOCATION: The Eko park Kraš is situated approx. 40 km from Zagreb- the capital of Croatia in the exceptionally beautiful Kupa river basin. The Park stretches over 422 hectares of meadows, pastures, lakes, woodlands and farm land where various arable crops are grown according to organic agriculture standards.

HOW TO COME TO EKO PARK KRAŠ

When coming from Zagreb, take the A1 motorway southbound for 14 km from the Lučko toll plaza and turn off at the exit sign-posted Donja Zdenčina. After the toll plaza turn left and then at the next junction turn right in the direction of Píсарovina. After 8 km in the Bratina village turn right at signpost for Ekopark Kraš and continue on for 2 km until you reach your destination.

VENUE DESCRIPTION: The apartment section of the Eko park provides accommodation for about 100 guests in wooden cottages typical of this region.

Enjoy meals prepared with organic produce grown in our gardens and specialties made to recipes of our ancestors at Domacica Restaurant.
